

For Immediate Release

Contact: Rick Ober

Phone: 609.341.4720

Email: rober@isles.org

Isles, Inc. Announces New Board Members

Trenton, N.J. – Isles, Inc., an award-winning community development nonprofit headquartered in Trenton, New Jersey, elected three new Trustees at its December Board Meeting. Marty Johnson, President and CEO of Isles, said: “I am excited to have three new, highly qualified leaders to help guide and support Isles’ team over the next three years.” New Trustees include:

Ms. Nora E. Brennan is the Vice President and Treasurer of Integra LifeSciences Corp. Her responsibilities include all management of the global treasury operations, including debt and equity financing, global cash management, investments, foreign exchange and interest rate risk management, and banking relationships. Prior to joining Integra, Ms. Brennan worked as a Director at Citigroup in the Global Equities Division and as a Vice President at JPMorgan Chase & Co. Ms. Brennan received a B.A. degree in Economics from the University of Illinois and a M.B.A. from the University of Chicago, Graduate School of Business

Mr. Sean Jackson is Senior Vice President of Rosemont Associates, a business strategy and government relations firm, and Woodrose Properties, a real estate development company, both located in Trenton, New Jersey. His prior experience includes serving as State Director for U.S. Sen. Torricelli. He holds a J.D. from Rutgers Newark Law School and is a resident of Hopewell Borough, NJ.

Mr. Henry Von Kohorn founded and managed his own real estate investment company for more than 25 years after having worked at Goldman Sachs. He is the immediate past president of the Princeton University Alumni Association and founded and chaired the Princeton Prize in Race Relations. He also served as board chair of Greens Farms Academy, located in Westport, Connecticut. Henry is a graduate of Princeton University, holds an MBA from Columbia University, served as an officer in the US Army, and currently resides in Princeton, New Jersey

In addition, two residents of Trenton were re-elected as Trustees: Francis Blanco, CEO of Living Hope Empowerment Center, a Trenton nonprofit; and Calvin E. Thomas, Jr., Principal of LodeStar Consulting, which consults for nonprofits.

Retiring from the Board were: Chair Steven Goodell, Esq., a partner in the Lawrenceville, NJ law firm of Herbert, Van Ness, Cayci & Goodell; Secretary Liz Gray Erickson, Trustee of the Princeton Area Community Foundation and Chair of its the Fund for Women and Girls; Treasurer Manish Shah, a financial representative with Northwestern Mutual Financial Network in Princeton; Thomas Byrne, President of Thomas Byrne Asset Management in Princeton; and Rev. Karen Hernandez-Granzen, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Trenton.

#####