

WHERE WE WORK

Originally a 1895 textile mill, Mill One's high ceilings, massive timber framing, exposed brick walls, and light filled factory windows were painstakingly restored to meet today's needs.

Mill One uses green building technology, including a green roof to absorb rainwater and cool the building, solar power, high efficiency heating and cooling, and many other energy and water saving features.

Project Sponsor: Isles is a community development and environmental nonprofit. www.isles.org.
